

Migrants' course: Let's use ICT

Migrants' course: Let's use ICT in teaching & learning of Newly-Arrived Migrants

Helsinki/Vantaa Finland. Venue: Varia vocational college,
Tennistie 1 01370 Vantaa

Sunday

Afternoon: Helsinki cultural local context with hidden treasures (meeting point main entrance Railway Station)

Evening: informal coffee and local jams of food - get to know participants, location, program, badges (location: in Helsinki center)

Monday

Morning

- Opening

Introduction to Finnish Education, getting to know the course staff and guided tour.

- Week Structure and Orientation to the week.

Presenting our group of migrant learners and the pedagogical bases of our work workshop: Migrants' language learning with digital tools, teaching methodologies, development process and results.

Lunch

Afternoon

- Hands on activities:

- Creating co-operationally Thinglink -platform as a learning diary.
- The story of our year with a group of migrant learners and the digilearning platform: on-the-job-learning and language: (PIC COLLAGE) Workshop: Migrants' language learning with digital tools, teaching methodologies, development process and results.

- Discussion, conclusions. Individual hands-on activity (learning diary), blogging and social media updates

- End of the day

Tuesday

Morning

- Migrants' language learning with digital tools, teaching methodologies, and results.

Hands on activities: Quizlet, Kahoot, H5P

Lunch

Afternoon

- Young Immigrants in Finland and Vantaa

- Discussion, conclusions. Individual hands-on activity (learning diary), blogging and social media updates

- End of the day

Wednesday

Morning

- Whole day visit to Aviapolis premises of Varia Vocational College
Address: Rälssitie 13, classrooms 101 and 102

- Guided tour. Automotive and transport engineering Workshops on different new learning approaches for the training of adult migrants with no language skills and/or with basic education. Group work.

- 1) Simulation learning with technology
- 2) eLearning with mobile devices
- 3) Virtual classes supporting learning

Lunch

Afternoon

- Program continues
- Observations. Teaching, studying and learning processes of adult migrants, learning spaces. Discussions with teachers and students.
- Discussion, conclusions. Individual hands-on activity (learning diary), blogging and social media updates

- End of the day

Thursday

Morning

- ICT tools for teaching migrant children.

Lunch

Afternoon

- New pedagogical methods teaching newly arrived immigrants. Reception and individualisation of learning paths for newly-arrived migrants. Promoting migrant's employment and acquisition of jobs; a guidance and training model to be implemented in networking and community-building activities
- Discussion, conclusions. Individual hands-on activity (learning diary), blogging and social media updates
- End of the day

Friday

Morning

- Completing the learning diary.

Lunch

Afternoon

- Panel discussion, trainers and trainees.
Discussion about learning diaries. Online evaluation of the course. Post-course activities. Networking, infrastructure.
- Closure.

Saturday

- meeting in front of the railway station (EUNEOS local Guides)
- visiting new learning environments (Oodi library/Harald Herlin center or similar) in Helsinki capital city area